

Jessie Lee Miller owns Winston's Workroom, a to-the-trade custom drapery workroom established in 2017, located in the triad area of North Carolina. Jessie Lee has always had a deep love of sewing and is thrilled to have found a way to channel her talents and interests into a thriving business.

Winston's Workroom has grown over the years due to the support of industry mentorship through the Workroom and Accountability Mentoring Group (WAM Group). Jessie Lee has been published in the Drapery Design & Digital Digest, and has been a guest on the Sew Much More podcast. She's a member of the WCAA and an instructor for Workroom Tech regional programs.
